

TE MATAU A MĀUI & MATARIKI

To mark the beginning of Matariki 2013, Te Matau a Māui (ocean voyaging waka) will arrive from Ahuriri (Napier), sailed by crew from Ngāti Kahungunu, and will be welcomed by mana whenua Taranaki Whānui and Wellington City.

INVITATION TO ALL HARBOUR USERS

All water craft are invited to join ceremonial waka Te Rerenga Kōtare and Te Hononga and be part of a mass on water welcome escorting
Te Matau a Māui sail from Seaview to Frank Kitts, Queens Wharf.

SATURDAY 8 JUNE @10.00 am

Te Matau a Māui will be moored at Chaffers Marina until Sunday 16 June. During the week there will be an opportunity for the public to go on board, perhaps have a harbour sail and attend workshops about the crews voyaging experiences, star navigation and our ocean environment.

For more information regarding these events, workshops and harbour sails during the week contact chris@portnicholson.org.nz

Special thanks to all our sponsors making these events happen
